

May 11, 2016

For Immediate Release

Darci Valentine

darci.valentine@adesa.com

317-249-4414

ADESA CANADA ANNOUNCES AUCTION MANAGEMENT CHANGES TO BETTER SERVE NATIONWIDE BUYER BASE

CARMEL, Ind.—ADESA, a business unit of KAR Auction Services (NYSE: KAR), today announced changes to its auction management teams at ADESA Ottawa, ADESA Toronto and ADESA Halifax.

Scott Rennie, previously assistant general manager of ADESA Toronto, has been promoted to general manager at ADESA Ottawa. Richard Kennedy, previously general manager of ADESA Halifax, is now assistant general manager of ADESA Toronto. Additionally, James Murphy has been promoted from assistant general manager to general manager of ADESA Halifax.

“Scott, Richard and James are all outstanding talents in the auction industry. Scott and Richard each have more than 20 years of experience providing premium auction service throughout Canada, and James’ contributions to ADESA Halifax during the past 10 years he has been there have made a positive and meaningful difference to our customers,” said Trevor Henderson, chief operating officer of ADESA Canada. “We are always working to strengthen our offerings to better support our robust, nationwide buyer base. Scott, Richard and James are all strong, innovative leaders who will help us consistently deliver excellent service not only in their respective major markets, but across our entire Canadian footprint.”

Rennie first started with ADESA through Canadian Auction Group in 1998, where he worked in a variety of sales positions, including inside and outside sales, and sales manager. After that, he spent five years as sales manager for North Toronto Auction, before returning to ADESA Toronto, where he served as receiving manager, sales manager and then assistant general manager.

Kennedy started with ADESA Toronto in 1999, and has served as service manager, operations manager and assistant general manager with that auction location, before moving into his most recent role as general manager of ADESA Halifax. In addition to his return to ADESA Toronto as assistant general manager, Kennedy will work with all Canadian auctions to ensure consistency and superior customer service experiences in arbitration matters as the director of arbitration.

Murphy joined the ADESA Halifax accounting department in 2006. From there, he advanced to operations manager in 2009, and spent the last six months as assistant general manager.

About ADESA

ADESA offers a full range of auction, reconditioning, logistical and other vehicle-related services to meet the remarketing needs of both its institutional and dealer customers. The company handles virtually every stage of the used-vehicle lifecycle through its related subsidiaries of PAR North America, RDN, AutoVIN and CarsArrive. Remarketing services include a variety of activities designed to transfer used vehicles between professional sellers and buyers.

ADESA hosts weekly sales at its 74 auction locations across the United States, Canada and Mexico. The company also builds and manages online sale platforms for many major vehicle manufacturers. The company's online auction venues include ADESA LiveBlock, which simulcasts vehicles worldwide; and ADESA DealerBlock, which offers two ways to buy: bid-now sales events or buy-now pricing 24/7. ADESA is part of the KAR Auction Services group of companies. Visit ADESA.com for details.

###